Draft Agenda

FIRST ANNUAL K-20 SUMMIT RE:
TEACHING AND LEARNING IN THE DIGITAL AGE
Sheraton Grand Hotel
1230 J Street
Sacramento, CA
Monday, December 8, 2003

Note: An optional "Technology 101" briefing will be held between 8:00 - 8:30 a.m. for those who want a brief overview of the technology terms that may be used throughout the summit.

9:00 a.m.   Welcome and Introductions
- Robert Moore, Executive Director, CA Postsecondary Education Commission
- Alan Arkatov, Chair, CA Postsecondary Education Commission
- Tom West, CENIC

9:15 a.m.   California's Educational System and the Use of Technology
- Sue Stickel, Deputy Superintendent, CA Dept. of Education
- Rae Belisle, Executive Director, State Board of Education
- Stephanie Couch, Director, Digital California Project

9:45 a.m.   Overview of Innovative Uses of Technology & Major Issues
(Breakout #1)

Discussion Topics/Issues	Presenters/Facilitator
How can technology enhance teacher education and professional development? • What are the major issues?	Alice Furry, CA Reading Project Larry Belkin, CSU Dominguez Hills Brett Christie, Sonoma State University Bonnie Marks, CTAP Director, Region 4 Terri Teegarden, San Diego Mesa College Facilitator: Stephanie Couch
How can online courses expand access to quality instruction before, during and after school? • What are the major issues?	Moises Torres, UC Santa Cruz Warren Ashley, CSU Dominguez Hills Dave Master, ACME Network Rick Martin & Robert Windham, OCDE Martha Kanter, Foothill-DeAnza CCD Facilitator: Jordan Brandman
Given the limited time to cover material in the state's adopted textbooks, what is the role for technology enabled resources in K-8 classrooms? • What are the major issues?	Bridget Foster, CLRN Rozeanne Steckler, SDSC Facilitator: Catherine Banker

10:45 a.m.   Break

Draft Agenda

11:00 a.m.   Overview of Innovative Uses of Technology & Major Issues
                        (Breakout #2)

Discussion Topics/Issues	Presenters/Facilitator
How can online assessment tools help teachers, students and parents? • What are the major issues?	Patrick Leier, Pomona USD Jim Lanich, Just for the Kids Facilitator: Catherine Banker
How can virtual meetings, conferences & field trips be used as a valuable resource? • What are the major issues?	Joe Von Hermann, CA State Parks Gayle Desler, Elk Grove USD & Judith Green, UCSB Joan Bissell, Cal Poly Pomona Richard Thome, San Diego COE Harry Bloom, CTAP Director, Region 10 Facilitator: Jordan Brandman
How can online collaboration tools reduce the need for face-to-face interaction in teacher development and professional development settings? • What are the major issues?	Philippe Galvez, Professor, CalTech Mark Schlager, SRI John Fleischman, Sacramento COE John Ittelson - Monterey COE Ding-Jo Currie, Coastline Com. College Facilitator: Stephanie Couch

12:00 p.m.   Lunch

                        Guest Speaker:
                        Carol A. Twigg, Executive Director, Center for Academic Transformation Rensselear
                        Polytechnic Institute – Technology and Instruction.

1:30 p.m.   Jack O′Connell, Superintendent of Public Instruction*

2:00 p.m.   Group Discussions & Recommendations for the Future

Option #1	What is the impact of emerging technologies on higher education campuses and their work with teachers, credential candidates and students?	Facilitator: Dean Harold Levine, School of Education UC Davis
Option #2	How can existing technologies increase the preparation for and early enrollment of high school students in college level work, reduce the need for freshman remediation, and improve the coordination and articulation between community college and 4-year college study? What resources currently exist to assist with remediation? Can assessments take place in the 11th grade?	Co-Facilitator: Dean Joan Bissell College of Education and Integrative Studies Cal Poly Pomona Co-Facilitator: Michael Berman Instructional & Information Technology Cal Poly Pomona
Option #3	What do we know about the impact of the use of technology in teacher education, professional development, and K-12 classroom instruction?	Facilitator: Dean Gary Matkin UC Irvine University Extension

3:00 p.m.   Break

Draft Agenda

3:15 p.m.   Review & Discussion of Group Findings - All Attendees
- Impact on higher education campuses
- Use of emerging technologies
- Impact of the uses of technologies

4:00 p.m.   Wrap-Up and Next Steps - Robert Moore, Executive Director, CPEC

4:15 p.m.   Adjourn

*Time subject to change
Yet to be confirmed